House Bill No. 1810

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 36-2-103(a), is amended by deleting in subdivision (1) the language and punctuation "or, if the child is likely to become a public charge,"

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 36-5-101(a), is amended by deleting the words, symbols, numbers, and punctuation "set in § 47-14-121." in the third sentence in subdivision (5) and by adding the following language before the last sentence in subdivision (5):

of twelve per cent (12%) per annum. All interest which accumulates on arrearages shall be considered child support.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 36-5-103, is amended by adding the following as subsection (e):

(e) The commissioner of the department of human services is expressly authorized to issue an administrative order of income assignment to the commissioner of the department of employment security against any wages or wage benefits to which an obligor is entitled. Such administrative order shall be based upon and issued pursuant to an order from a court of competent jurisdiction or pursuant to state or local law, shall be deemed to be legal process in the nature of a garnishment pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 662(e), and shall direct the payment of child or spousal support by an obligor parent.

House Bill No. 1810

(1) Administrative orders of income assignment issued pursuant to the authority of this part may, in the discretion of the commissioner of human services, be delivered to a representative of the commissioner for the purpose of execution and such representative shall have the power and authority to levy and execute such administrative order.

(2) The administrative order of income assignment authorized by this section may be directed to, and effectively served upon, the commissioner of the department of employment security by electronically transmitted data to compel the assignment of unemployment benefits in order to satisfy the legal obligation of obligor parents to provide child support payments. The transmission of any such order by the commissioner of human services shall be certification by the commissioner of the existence of the underlying court order and that the procedural requirements for notice to the obligor parent as required by §§ 36-5-501 et seq. have been satisfied. The administrative order shall show the amount to be deducted from the obligor's unemployment compensation benefits by the department of employment security so as to comply with the underlying court order, and with any applicable statutes, rules, regulations, or interdepartmental agreements and, when necessary, the order shall contain the last known address of the obligor parent.

(3) The state child support enforcement computer system records shall be the official records of child support orders and child support related spousal support orders and payment records for purposes of this subsection.

(4) If it is determined that the department of employment security has erroneously or wrongfully withheld benefits from an individual and delivered such benefits to the department of human services pursuant to a commissioner's order of income assignment, the department of human services will pay the correct amount to the individual to correct to erroneous payment.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 36-5-402, is amended by deleting subsections (a) and (e) in their entirety and by substituting instead the following language:

(a) (1) Hearings in all child support cases which are not being enforced pursuant to the provisions of Title IV-D of the Social Security Act shall be heard within a reasonable period of time not to exceed forty-five (45) days of the service of process in each county in the state.

(2) Hearings in all Title IV-D support cases which seek to establish or enforce support shall be heard within the time frames established by federal child support regulations. The department of human services shall send notice of the time frames as they may be amended to the director of the administrative office of the courts who shall send such notice to all courts of the state with child or spousal support jurisdiction. The director of the administrative office of the courts shall send such notice to the courts within thirty (30) days of the date of notice from the department and the time frames shall then become effective thirty (30) days after the date of the notice from the director and shall apply to all actions to establish or enforce support initiated on or after the effective date.

(e) The appointment of referees in juvenile court which may be necessary to meet the provisions of this section shall be governed by the provisions of Title 37, Chapter 1.

SECTION 5. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 36-5-501, is amended by deleting subdivision (5) of subsection (a) in its entirety.

SECTION 6. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 36-5-501, is amended by deleting the first and second sentences of subdivision (1) of subsection (b) and by substituting instead the following language, and by designating each subsequent sentence of subdivision (1) as separate paragraphs (C)-(G):

House Bill No. 1810

(A) In all cases being enforced under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act in which an immediate assignment of income has not been previously ordered and in which a parent who is ordered to pay child support is in arrears as defined in this subdivision and as reflected in the records of the clerk of court or the records of the department of human services, the clerk of the court or the department of human services, or the department's contractor in Title IV-D child support cases shall, without the necessity of an affidavit, issue an advance notice of income assignment within fifteen (15) calendar days of the date the support payment becomes in arrears if the address of the parent in arrears is known, or within fifteen (15) calendar days of locating the absent parent.

(B) In all other cases where the child support payments were ordered to be paid directly to a parent or guardian or custodian of the child or children, and the child support payments are in arrears as defined in this subdivision, the parent, guardian or custodian may, by affidavit filed with the clerk, request that an advance notice of income assignment be sent by the clerk of the court to the obligor. The notice shall be sent by the clerk within fifteen (15) calendar days of the date the affidavit is completed if the address of the parent in arrears is known or within fifteen (15) calendar days of locating the absent parent.

SECTION 7. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 36-5-501(f), is amended by deleting the words "withholding taxes and FICA" and by substituting instead the words and punctuation "FICA, withholding taxes, and a health insurance premium which covers the child.".

SECTION 8. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 37-1-151, is amended by designating the current language as subsection (a) and by adding the following new subsection:

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), placement of a child in the custody of an agency of the state of Tennessee shall make the parents of that child liable for support from the effective date of the court's order. The court's placement of the child's custody with the state of Tennessee shall be deemed as an automatic application by the state of Tennessee, as custodian of the child, for child support services from the department of human services' Title IV-D child support program.

(2) In all cases in which the court places the physical custody of any child placed with an agency of the state of Tennessee, and if no prior orders for the support of the child by each parent exist, the court shall immediately order child support or shall set a hearing, which hearing shall be held within forty-five

Until otherwise ordered by the court which had originally set the support or which currently has jurisdiction to set support, the child support shall thereafter be paid by the obligor to the person to whom the child support obligation was paid prior to the child's placement in the custody of the state of Tennessee.

(D) Any child support funds remaining with the state of Tennessee after the child is returned to the physical custody of either parent or other custodian by court order shall be returned to the custodial parent or other custodian named in the order for use in the care of the child after reimbursement to the state of such costs incurred for the child's care by the state which are not otherwise prohibited by state or federal law or regulation.

SECTION 9. Section 6 of this act shall take effect upon implementation of the department of human services' child support enforcement computer system or on January 1, 1996, whichever is earlier, and the remaining sections of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1995, the public welfare requiring it.
